

THE REUNION PLACEMATS AND COASTERS

Presented at the 2015 Reunion Dinner by
CPL Todd Dovey - 5 RAR Warr-Khan Trophy Winner 2014

The Placemat and Coasters Set placed in front of you commemorates the history and significant milestones of the 5th Battalions in the Australian Army, spanning 100 years from 1915 to 2015.

Importantly the Placemat and Coaster set celebrates the 50th Anniversary of the raising of the 5th Battalion, The Royal Australian Regiment. The battalion was raised at Holsworthy on the 1st of March 1965, 50 years ago today. The Battalion served two tours in South Vietnam but has in more recent times served our nation in Timor, Iraq and Afghanistan.

In this the 100th year of ANZAC it is appropriate to recognize those deeds of our former 5th Battalions as well. They too have in 2015 reached significant milestones in the celebrations their respective history.

The 5th Battalion AIF, was raised in Melbourne, Victoria in 1914, only two weeks after the declaration of war. The Battalion sailed for the Middle East and after additional training landed on the beach at ANZAC Cove, in the second wave of troops, on the 25th April 1915. The first of our 5th Battalions later went on to serve with distinction on the Western Front in Europe.

The 2/5th Battalion AIF, was also raised in Melbourne, Victoria in October 1939. The Battalion arrived in the Middle East in May 1940, 75 years ago this year. After further training the Battalion took part in its first campaign of World War II against the Italians in Eastern Libya.

The Battalion was engaged in continuous operations in Africa and the Mediterranean Theatres. The Battalion returned to Australia in 1942.

The 2/5th was then deployed to Papua New Guinea, distinguishing itself at the Battle of Mount Tambu.

The Battalion continued operations against the Japanese Forces until the end of World War II on the 15th August 1945.

And now the 5th Battalion, The Royal Australian Regiment, continues our heritage, building a strong history of its own, having been re-raised in 2006. The Battalion has distinguished itself in operations in Iraq, Timor-Leste and Afghanistan.

Further details of our history can be found on the 5 RAR Association website.

I invite you to enjoy your evening and may the 5th Battalion, The Royal Australian Regiment continue to be “Our Battalion” and “Our Future”.
